Oh snap! B!RANDED! launches with a BANG!

Founder Joseph Anthony Camp brings 5 years of proprietary software to your fingertips

By Jessica Carlson

DENVER, COLORADO, UNITED STATES — A powerful new suite of marketing software launches today with unlimited access to tools and capacity previously unheard of from any online service provider.

Users can send anywhere from 10,000 to 100,000,000 messages, upload from 1 gigabyte to 100 terabytes of assets, and sell everything from $10 subscriptions to $1,000,000 products—all fully customized to their company and brand.

Founder Joseph Anthony Camp spent five years developing the proprietary platform specifically to give businesses complete control over their marketing. With B!RANDED!, companies can finally fire their marketing agency and run everything in-house.

Sign with B!RANDED! today and take unlimited marketing power into your own hands.
